By order of the secretary of war, the 35 saloons in the Panam canal zone will be closed during the coming fiscal year.

When the Montenegrin victors entered Scutari they were surrounded by half-starved men and women clamoring for food.

The territorial legislature at Honolulu adopted a report tabling the resolution of protest against California's proposed alien law.

The directors of the Panama-Pacific international exposition have lined up with the opposition against the passage of the anti-alien land bill in California.

Eight California senators are urging the adoption of their constitutional amendment to abolish the present senate and assembly in that state and to substitute a single law-making body of 40 members.

A youth of 18 and a girl of 19 climbed to the clock gallery in the tower of the Notre Dame cathedral at Antwerp in arm, and leaped to the ground from a height of 180 feet. Every bone in their bodies was broken.

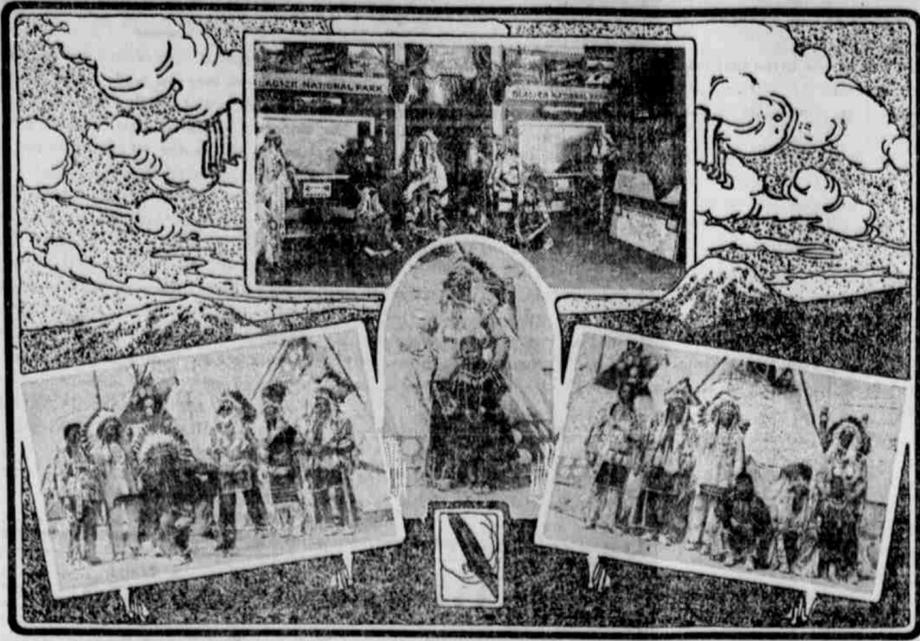

The 675 employees of the International Harvester company, who walked out of the twine mills March 21 at Auburn, N. Y., have since rejected every proposition made to them to return to work. Further effort to bring about a settlement has been abandoned by the board of mediation.

By a vote of 41 to 12, the assembly of the California legislature turned down a resolution to invite the governors of Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Arizona to come to Sacramento to confer with the lawmakers and Secretary of State William J. Bryan on the question of anti-alien land legislation.

At the meeting of the American Society of International Law, held at Washington, most of the speakers agreed with Richard Olney, ex-secretary of state, who held that this country was entirely within its rights, as the owner of the Panama canal, to make whatever rules regarding the canal it desired.

Little Edna Newman, 4 years old, was washed through a drain pipe 13 inches in diameter for a distance of 409 feet at Johnstown, Penn. She fell into a creek near the pipe intake and was sucked into it.

BLACKFEET INDIANS FROM GLACIER NATIONAL PARK INVADE NEW YORK.

Glacier National Park over-shadowed everything in the New York Travel and Vacation Show, which was held in the Grand Central Palace March 20th to 29th. The uniqueness of the Great Northern Railway's exhibit of Uncle Sam's new play-ground was a marvel to New York decorative artists. The ten Blackfoot

Indians, of course lent, much color to the Glacier National Park Exhibit. Besides the Indians the marvelous beauty presented by the scenic photographs and paintings made the Glacier Park booth easily the attraction of the Show. The Indians pitched their tepee in the middle of the Exhibit and the visitors to the show at all times of the day and night while the Show was open, thronged about the redskins. The attendance to the Show averaged ten thousand daily. Judging from the enthusiasm shown, Glacier National Park, the tourist travel to that place this year will break all records.

Dr. Edward S. Higley of Chicago, who had no particular idea that he was casting bread upon the waters, in the early '80's, lent Charles Froelich $700 to assist him through a course at the University of Nebraska. Dr. Higley has just received word that Froelich had died in Australia, leaving his benefactor a fortune of $1,000,000.

Benjamin Robinson, the discoverer of fish glue, died at Gloucester, Mass., aged 84.

Pope Pius is much better. Cardinal Merry del Val is credited with the statement that his eminence has merely had the grip, and that his illness would have passed unnoticed had it affected an ordinary person.

John Schrank, the assailant of ex-President Roosevelt, complains that it is a disgrace for a man of his "high intellect" to be locked up in an asylum as a dangerous maniac. He is confined near Oshkosh, Wis. Schrank wants to secure the revolver with which he shot Roosevelt, saying that he has promised it to the Metropolitan Museum of New York.

The prosecution of Fred Warren, J. I. Sheppard and C. L. Phifer, connected with the Appeal to Reason, a Socialist publication of Girard, Kan., charged with misuse of the mails in publishing an alleged expose of conditions at the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, was practically ended when Judge Pollock sustained a demurrer filed by the defendants.
